NEW ANTI-POLYGAMY BILL

MEASURE WHICH HAS RE-CEIVED THE Approval of Prominent Gentiles in Utah as Well as Congressmen.

Washington, March L.-Representative Woodburn of Nevada to-day introduced in the House an anti-polygamy bill which has received the proval of prominent Gentiles in Utah, and has been submitted to members of the Judiciary Committee of both houses of Congress. In its preamble it recites that the United States statutes prohibit and provide for the punishment of bigamy, polygamy and un-lawful cohabitation in the Territories, and for the disqualification of persons guilty of such offenses to vote or hold office; that the act of giving aid, counse), advice or encouragement and thereby producing the commission of such offenses should be made a crime punishable with equal severity; that there exists in Utah a sect which in its creed holds as one of its funda-mental principles and as a sacramental the right and duty of its members to practice unlawful cohabitation; that the high priests and leaders and members thereof, claiming to be inspired by and acting in obedience to authority superior to the United States, do openly and publicly counsel, advise and command the members of said sect to commit said offenses in open and professed defiance and contempt of the laws of the United States, and by reason of such counsel, advice and command many thousands of members of said sect have been induced to commit said offenses, and are now living and cohabiting with a plurality of so-called wives and concubines, but escape punishment for said offenses by secret intrigue and the various corrupt influences which the pos-session of political majorities enables the leaders of said sect to exercise, will of which brings the laws and authority of the United States into disgrace and contempt and renders the same of no effect. The bill is as follows:

THE BILL. Section 1. That no person who shall hereafter, directly or indirectly, counsel, or advise others to marry, have, consort or cohabit with any person other than his or her lawful wife or husband, who is a member or shall contribute to the support of any organization or association of any de-scription whatever which authorizes, counsels, encourages or permits any of its members to marry, have, consort or cohabit with more than one woman at the same time, shall vote at any election held in any Territory of the United States, or be eligible for election or appointment to, or be entitled to hold any office or place of public trust, honor or emolument in under or for any territory of the United States of America or under the United States in either of said territories; nor shall any such person be entitled to locate or make settlement upon or ac quire title to any of the lands of pub-lic domain of the United States of America or be eligible to serve as a juror in or for any court in either of

That no person in either of the United States shall be registered as a voteror vote at any election who, upon being challenged upon either of the grounds set forth in section 1 of this act shall refuse to take and sub-scribe the following oath: "I do solemnly swear that I (if a man) do not cohabit with more than one woman or (if a woman) that I do not cohabit with a man having more than one living and undivorced wife, and that I do not directly or indirectly counsel, aid, or encourage or advise others to marry, have, consort or cohabit with more than one woman at one and the same time, and that I am not a mem-ber and do not contribute to the support of any organization or association which authorizes, counsels, encourages or permits any of its members to marhave, consort or cohabit with more than one woman at one and the same time, under any form, name or pre-tense whatsoever, so help me God."

Sec. 3. That if any person who shall take the oath set forth in section 2 of this act, either to qualify as a voter, juror, or to hold office or locate upon the public lands, shall swear falsely, such person shall be guilty of perjury, and, on conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1000 and be imprisoned for a time not exceeding fourteen years nor less than six months.

Sec. 4. That every person elected or appointed to any office or place of pub-lic trust, honor or emolument in, under or for any Territory of the United States, or under the United States in either of said Territories, shall, before entering upon the duties of said office, in addition to the usual oath of office, in addition to the usual oath of office, take and subscribe the oath set forth in section 2 of this act.

Sec. 5. That every person who shall hereafter locate or make settlement upon any lands of the public domain, or seek to acquire title thereto, shall take and subscribe the oath set forth in section 2 of this act before the in section 2 of this act before the proper officer of the General Land Department in the district in which such lands may be situated.

Sec. 6. That all poll or registry list existing or kept under the laws of any of the Territories of the United States prior hereto, are hereby declared void, and the proper registration boards, commissioners, supervisors, or officers of election in the several Territories are hereby empowered and directed, before the general election shall be held in their respective Territories or election districts, to prepare new lists containing the names only of persons eligible to vote or to hold office under the provisions of this act. Prohibition in Georgia.

Macon, Ga., February 28.—The Pro-hibition election in Baldwyn county occurs on March 18th, and the campaign is becoming heated. Recently Sam Jones, the revivalist, made a Prohibition speech in Millidgeville, which intensified the feeling between the supporters of the two tickets. Yesterday Sam Ennis, anti-Pro-hibitionist and the brother of the sheriff, shot and killed Deputy Marshal C. N. Haygood, Prohibition ist. The difficulty grow and of Hay-The difficulty grew out of Haygood's criticising an anti-Prohibition speech made by a brother of Ennis. Fears are entertained that Ennis will be rescued to-night by his friends.

Pork-Packing at Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, O., March 1 .- Superintendent Maxwell, secretary of the Pork-Packers Association, made his official report of the number of hogs packed here from November 1st to March 1st, the total being 332,696, against 385,435 last year, showing a ecrease of 52,739.

withstanding the inclement weather, the church was filled before the time for services to begin. Fully 3000 per-sons were present. The revivalist's appearance and manner was such as to put him on a good forting with the to put him on a good feeting with the congregation from the start. He prefaced his sermon by a plea for free and easy good fellowshin, and his own attitude was that of man in his own home talking to a friend. The sermon was an earnest one, preached from the text, "Let Your Lights so Shine, etc.,"

THE WAGE-WORKERS

St. Louis Workingmen, Sr. Louis, Mo., March 1 - Meetings of the various trades assemblies of this city were held yesterday after-noon to discuss topics of interest to the laboring cisses. At all of these meetings action was taken indersing the establishment of the eight hour law, and several of the unions and assem-blies passed resolutions designating the first day of next May as the time for its inauguration. The Great McCormick Strike. CHICAGO, ILL., March 1.- The Mc-Cormick Resper Works resumed operations this morning, 150 men reporting for duty. Great crowds were in the vicinity of the works early in the morning, and to their presence is as-cribed the fact that a larger number did not apply for work through fear of intimidation. A large force of police were on hand to preserve order, and arrested three or four men who were noisy and aggressive. The locked-out men are to hold a mass-meeting this forences near the works.

When the great bells sounded at the works, not to exceed 150 men had entered the yards. Large numbers of workmen had appeared carrying their dinner-pails, but were taken in charge by the stakers, and a great many were prevailed upon to remain outside. Great crowds of strikers lines in Sir Henry's handsome face tell any one at a glance he is not a line stand avenue facing the works. Blue Island avenue, facing the works, with the evident intention of intimidating any men expecting to go to work, and finally the police ordered them back. They were slow to move at first, but when the order to disperse came a second time and the officers arvanced they turned and ran across the prairies, scattering in all direc-tions. The dispersing of the crowd restored confidence to the minds of wavering ones, who had been prevented from entering at first, and they started hurriedly for the works. In five minutes there were, according to Mr. McCormick's count 350 mas at work in the works. count 250 men at work in the various departments. Superintendent Averill said a number of the men had refrained from returning, owing to having received threatening notes last night. By to-morrow he expected the rorks would be in full operation. Mr. McCormick opened the yards in person, and dec'ared he would not shut down now if he had but a dozen men to do the work. After the first dispersal of the men they began assembling again in little groups in the neighborhood. When requested to "move on" they refused to do so, and about twenty of them put into a patrol wagon and taken to the Hinman Street station. Fifty men had gathered in front of 1067 Blue Island avenue, but none of by. He is familiar with the Polish language, and when he heard the inndiary outburst he grabbed Gendor and took him to the station. When searched there a 48 caliber revolver was found in Gendor's poeket. Most of the others had pistols. The men who were arrested were taken to the Hinman station and from there to the West Twelfth Street station, where they were arraigned before Justice Ingersoll on the charge of carrying con-cealed weapons. No defense was made in any of the cases, and the prisoners were fined $5 each. The reaper works are distant from the court-house five miles, but the police headquarters are kept fully advised of the situation. Chief of Police Ebersold was seen Chief of Police Ebersoid was seen this morning and said: "Although not apprehensive of any serious trouble, still I am prepared for the receipt of the very worst of news from the McCormick quarters. I sincerely hope there will be no disturbance, and from reports already received, I am constrained to believe that the day will pass quietly by without an outbreak or disturbance of any nature. I have an adequate force on the ure. I have an adequate force on the ground for immediate necessities and I have arranged matters so that within an Four from the time an alarm is given I can swarm the McCormick premises with policemen. 'In time of peace prepare for war,' you know." At 10 o'clock about 500 of the locked out men formed a procession headed by a brass band, started for Workingmen's Hall, corner of Twelfth and Walter streets, to sttend the meeting there. Up to 10 o'clock thirty-three arrests had been made in all by the police. All these were made by officers in citizen's clothes, who were mingling with the crowd. The greater num-ber of those taken in charge were booked for carrying concealed weapons, revolvers having been found on them. The remainder were charged with violating section 353 of the crim-inal code, which refers to rictius as-

A Word to Workers,

If your avocations are mentally or physi-cally laborious, if they subject you to expo-sure in inclement weather, if they confine sure in inclement weather, if they confine you to the dest, and are of a nature to involve wear and tear of brain and nervous strain, you may occasionally require some renovating tonic. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the article for you; it stimulates the failing exergies, invigorates the body and cheers the mind. It enables the system to throw off the debilitating effects of undue latigue, gives renewed vigor to the organs of digestion, arouse the liver when inactive, which it very often is with people whose pursuits are sedentary, renews the jaded appetite, and encourages healthful repose. Its ingredients are safe, and its credentials, which consist in the hearty indorsement of persons of every class of society, are motening. Admirably is it adapted to the medical wants of workers.

Killed by An Electric Shock. Evansnille, Ind., February 28.— About 7 o'clock this evening Hugh Oliver, aged twenty-three, an employe of the Evansville Electric Light Com-pany, while at work on the dynamo. accidentally placed both his hands in connection with the electric current, and the full strength of the 300 candle power dynamo passed through his body, killing him instantly.

HOME RULE FOR IRELAND.

GLADSTONE HARD AT WORK ON HIS SCHEME.

Loxpox, March 1,-Mr. Gladstone s working hard over his scheme for home rule. He does not intend to proceed by mere resolution, but will introduce a regular scheme. The leaders of the Irish party hitherto maintain an attitude of reserve. Their policy is to wait and see. Public opinion here is veering round again. The sudden fury against Mr. Gladstone and Ireland has greatly abated. People are now commonly saying the Irish question must be settled at once.

Grattan's Speech

One event of the past week in Irish Parliamentary affairs was the maiden speech of Sir Thomas Gratian Es-monde. He is a descendent of Henry Grattan, is very young and handsome, an aristocrat and a landlord, who throws in his lot with the National party. His speech was singularly quiet and modest, almost monotonous in its subdued accents. The language was remarkably clear and good, and it contained several bright hits. The House listened with interest. It always likes a young aristocrat whose father and grandfathers were members in their day, especially if he begins modestly. Some time Sir Henry Esmonde will astonish the House by his resolute, outspoken Nationalism. Then the House will grown at him, man to be put down.

An Extraordinary Scene, The week's Irish business closed with an extraordinary scene of fraternization between the Orange group and the Parnellites. Mr. O'Brien, editor of the United Ireland, made a motion in favor of the purchasers of glebe lands getting the advantages allowed other tenant purchasers under the recent land legislation. Col. War-ing seized the opportunity, which, he said, might never recur again, of act-ing with the Parnellites on this oc-casion only. Mr. Dillon was followed by Lord Ernest Hamilton in a clever maiden speech, in which he referred in a very friendly way to his Nationalist countrymen. Wonderful to relate, the Secretary to the Treasury rose to complete this marvelous exhibition of harmony by agreeing on be-hblf of the Treasury that the desired reforms should be granted by Parliament.

Ireland is not only an Aaron's rod. swallowing the rods of the Parliamen-tary priests, but is also swallowing the rods of ordinary authors. Twelve dis-tinct volumes on Ireland, printed within a few weeks, stare one in the face at all the book stalls. Every March number of the magazines has something about Irish affairs, and the rethem were very beligerent except Staniftoff Gendor, who is described as as a ringleader. He got upon a doorstep and shouted in Polish, "Now is the time to act. Every man on his pistol, and let us live or die for the cause." Officer Marks was standing by He is familiar with the Polish thing about Irish affairs, and the reruin, are liberal extracts from old proc-lamations of the Governors of New York and Pennsylvania at the time of the railway riots, as instancing the intelligent supremacy of a strong State The article is conservative in The same review has an article tone: by the Parnellite Col. Nolan, named "A Home Ruler's Views," in which he advocates that Ireland, as related to the United Kingdom, should hold a position like that which New York bears to the Federal Government, and he sweeps away by figures the imperial argument that Ireland cannot finance for itself.

But the Nincteenth Century devotes a hundred pages to home rule, Mr. Robert Giffen shows how unjust an poressive Parliament has been in the itter of taxation to Ireland. Cabinet Minister (Mr. Shaw LeFeyre) talls up federal and sub-state prece-dents of government as applicable to Irish home rule, largely illustrating from United States methods. Lord Edward Fitzmaurice, lately the Gladstonean Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs, next discusses the relations of Austria, Hungary and Crotia toward imperialism. The Hon, Hugh Elliott makes a strong plea for local home rule in Scotland, but without a Scottish Legislature.

Mr. Frank Hill, the recently removed editor of the News, presents a trenchant papar, beginning: "The Irish question has long been put. What the people are now awaiting is the English answer, which presently must be given." Noticing the recent ducal opposition to Mr. Gladstone, Mr. Hill had this suggestive sentence: "England is not a dukery." Another sentence is: "In default of a Dablin tish Legislature. sentence is: "In default of a Dablin Parliament, the Irish have now established practically their Parliament at Westminster, and Mr. Parnell is choosing Ministers for Downing street recently he chose candidates for Iway." Mr. Hill's argument is that Galway." Mr. Hill's argument is that an Irish Parliament at Dublin will strenthen the union, and his conclu-sion is that "the redistribution of the functions between a central Legisla-ture and local chambers is a necessity for the efficient Parliamentary government of the United Kingdom."

The Contemporary and National review also embrace strong articles on "The Irish Difficulty," and "Ireland Under Her Own Parliament." These eferences not only show the influence of Irish politices on current literature. but also the important part American precedents play therein.

Sexton After Churchill's Scalp. On Friday night there was great excitement in anticipation of Mr. Sexton's motion pronouncing the censure of the House on Lord Randolph Churchill for his Ulster speeches. Both men were in arms and eager for both men were in arms and eager for the fray, but a long, prosy debate on the police of London occupied the hours. Consequently Mr. Sexton was pushed over till Tuesday, when a great row is expected. Lord Ran-dolph Churchill has got his war paint on and intends making his final rupture with the Nationalists. Many Conservatives doubt the wisdom of this policy, but the spoiled child of the party will have his own way. Mr. Sexton, cool and thetermined, will make the jur fly on Tuesday. Something is needed to enliven the proceedings, which were rendered horribly dull during the past week by the integrationable speeches of the new

The First Sign

Of falling health, whether in the form of Night Sweats and Nervousness, or in a sense of General Weariness and Loss of Appetite, should suggest the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This preparation is most effective for giving tone and strength to the enfeebled system, promoting the direction and assimilation of food, restoring the nervous forces to their normal condition, and for purifying, enriching, and vitalizing the blood.

Failing Health.

Ten years ago my health began to fall. I was troubled with a distressing Cough, Night Sweats, Weakness, and Nervousness. I tried various remedies prescribed by different physicians, but became so weak that I could not go up stairs without stopping to rest. My friends recommended me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which I did, and I am now as healthy and strong as ever.—Mrs. E. L. Williams, Alexandria, Minn.

I have used Ayer's Sarsaparilla, in my family, for Scrofula, and know, if it is taken faithfully, that it will thoroughly eradicate this terrible disease. I have also prescribed it as a tonic, as well as an alterative, and must say that I honestly believe it to be the best blood medicine ever compounded.—W. F. Fowler, D. D. S., M. D., Greenville, Tenn.

Dyspepsia Cured.

It would be impossible for me to describe what I suffered from Indigestion and Headache up to the time I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I was under the care of various physicians and tried a great many kinds of medicines, but never obtained more than temporary relief. After taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla for a short time, my headache disappeared, and my stomach performed its duties more perfectly. To-day my health is completely restored, — Mary Harley, Springfield, Mass.

I have been greatly benefited by the prompt use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It tones and invigorates the system, regulates the action of the digestive and assimilative organs, and vitalizes the blood. It is, without doubt, the most reliable blood purifier yet discovered.—H. D. Johnson, 383 Atlantic ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.
